University of Michigan Seminar on Poverty Research

Fall Term, 2005

Please check web for changes and additional details: http://www.npc.umich.edu/news/events/others/

September 29, 2:00 pm – 5:00 pm, Founders Room, Alumni Center. “Debating Social Security Reform.” Keynote speaker: Edward Gramlich, Interim Provost, University of Michigan; Richard A. Musgrave Professor at the Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy; chair of the Quadrennial Advisory Council on Social Security from 1994-96; and member of Federal Reserve Board of Governors, 1997-2005. Panelists: Henry Aaron, Senior Fellow and the Bruce and Virginia MacLaury Chair at the Brookings Institution, and Chairman of the Board of Directors, National Academy of Social Insurance; Olivia Mitchell, Director of the Boettner Center for Pension and Retirement Research at the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, and a member of President Bush’s Commission for Strengthening Social Security; and Robert Willis, Professor of Economics, and Director of the Health and Retirement Survey at the Institute for Social Research, University of Michigan. The panel will be chaired by Darren Lubotsky, Visiting Professor of Public Policy at UM, and a faculty member at the University of Illinois. Co-sponsored with the Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy, University of Michigan.

December 14, 4:00-5:30pm. CSEPH offices, Galleria, 1214 S. University Avenue, 2nd Floor. “Effects of Male Incarceration on AIDS Infection Rates Among African-Americans.” Rucker Johnson, University of California-Berkeley. Co-sponsored by the Center For Social Epidemiology & Population Health.

Date and Location to be announced: Nobel Prize Laureate James J. Heckman. Co-sponsored by the Applied Microeconomics Seminar.